

RIWAKA™

A HOP WITH A POWERFUL
PASSIONFRUIT
'CITRUSSY'
CHARACTER.

AROMA PROFILE

PASSIONFRUIT

GRAPEFRUIT

PINEAPPLE

CITRUS

BLACKBERRY CANDY

Alpha acids % 4.5-6.5

Beta acids % 3.5-6.0

ANCESTRY

Developed in New Zealand by what is now known as Plant & Food Research (Brand 85.6-23). Bred through crossing 'old line' Saazer with specially developed New Zealand breeding selections.

Riwaka pronunciation tip:
Ree-wah-kah.

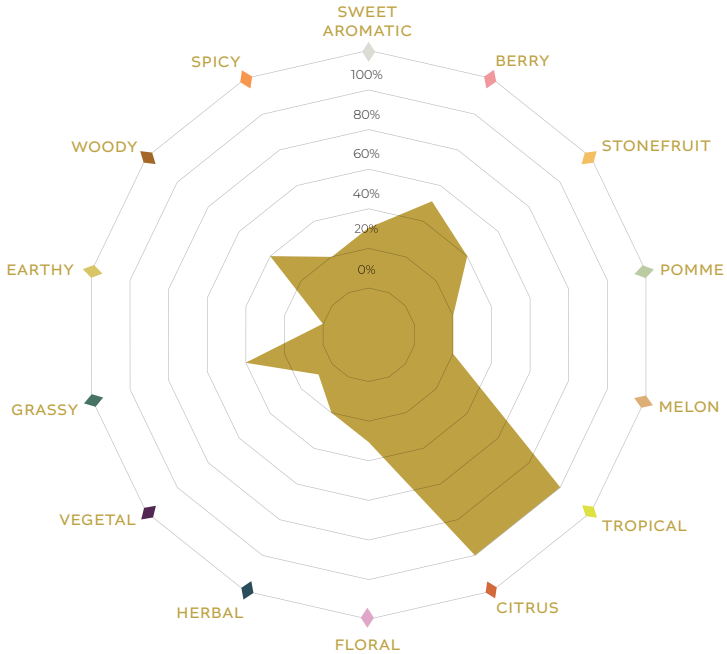

BREWING NOTES

Its powerful passionfruit 'citrusy' character is often described as breathtaking.

BEER STYLES

Pilsners, pale ales, APAs, IPAs,
Hazy IPAs.

SENSORY NOTES

BITTER COMPONENTS

Alpha acids %	4.5-6.5
Beta acids %	3.5-6.0
Cohumulone as % of alpha acids	32-36

AROMA COMPONENTS

Total oil (ml/100g)	1.2-2.0
Total polyphenols %	5.0-8.0

OIL BREAKDOWN (% OF TOTAL OIL)

Farnesene %	0.2-1.8
Humulene %	4.0-10.0
Linalool %	0.4-0.8
Myrcene %	60-75

1. These technical values are from tested lots. Actual product may vary.
2. Sensory notes were determined by averaging the % of assessors who reported the presence of each aroma category in dry hop cones on a Check All That Apply (CATA) ballot. Actual product may vary.

